Dance Fever

Learn choreography from your favourite dance movie or television show. You may think only professionals can move like that, but anyone can “Step Up” and perform a Mia Michaels routine. This class will focus on ballet, jazz, and contemporary technique to develop more advanced choreography as the class progresses. Prior dance experience is recommended but all skill levels are welcome. If you ever dreamed of being a contestant on “So You Think You Can Dance,” this is the class for you!