Skating
All participants are separated according to their skill level. Beginners focus on basic skills like moving forward, backward and stopping. Intermediate skaters learn to use their edges skilfully as well as other more advanced skills. Advanced skaters learn classical figure skating skills based on their ability. Participants must bring their own skates.