Stroke Improvement
This course is designed for individuals who know the basics of how to swim but would like to improve and fine-tune their stroke technique. As the focus is also on building endurance, the swimmers should be able to swim at least two continuous laps of the pool.